If you are not a member of a small group, it's still not too late. Remember, too, there will be an optional away day on 19th November, which is highly recommended (more information to follow).

Simeon's Watch- A puzzle in the family at Christmas

Riding Lights Theatre Company are premiering their new play, Simeon's Watch, at Friargate Theatre, York on the 12th and 13th October at 7.30pm.

Both comic and moving, the play looks at three generations of one farming family as they cope with the joys and struggles of growing older. Written by Bridget Foreman (Inheritance, In Fog And Falling Snow) it echoes the biblical story of Simeon, the man who watches and waits at the end of his life, overlooked by the world, but not forgotten by God...

Leah keeps losing things. First it was her knitting, then the sheep. She frequently loses her temper and some days she thinks she's losing her mind. Or is it her father Simeon who's doing that? Staring out of the window, muttering about angels, waiting with unshakeable conviction for 'God knows what'. It's all a game to Leah's daughter, which only makes things worse.

Something has to change. As the nights draw in, watching her father's dementia slow him down and her daughter's future race ahead, Leah seems to be waiting too – but for what?

Friargate Theatre, Lower Friargate, York, YO1 9SL Tickets: £12 / £10 (concessions) from 01904 613000 or ridinglights.org/simeon

Thought for the week:

Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come. Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation. 1 Corinthians 5:17-18
