Prophecy and Prayer meeting 13 September 2016

The meeting opened with a time of praise and worship in words and song. We heard Psalm 63 v1-8 'You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek you; I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you, in a dry and parched land where there is no water. I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory. Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you. I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands. I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you. On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night. Because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings. I cling to you; your right hand upholds me.'

Some pictures have been received since we last met. During pre-service prayers at St Andrew's morning worship on 11 September: a large straight road stretching ahead with huge white chevrons showing the way to follow; an assurance that God is showing the way we need simply be obedient to what he says; word added was that the motorway rule of staying two chevrons apart indicated we recognise the world's way but we are not to follow that way; at the end of the service a picture was given by one not part of pre-service prayers of stepping-stones of different sizes with different distances between them; the stones were really steady with no wobble and the picture was interpreted as God providing a clear way ahead that can be trusted but that involved coming up against challenges of different sizes as indicated by different sized gaps between stones. From a Reflect meeting held on Monday a picture of stepping-stones was also reported with the message to trust in the Lord. A picture from earlier today where the wounds on a body were healed one at a time by being lifted off and placed at the Cross where the healing was accomplished. 1 Peter ch2 v 24 "He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by his wounds you have been healed." We expect to journey with Christ one step at a time in the way he leads and we can be confident in His healing and salvation.

We prayed for those going through difficult times and claimed the victory for them by the Blood of the Lamb. Thank you Blessings Ian Richardson

NOTES

Thought for the week:

Our identity is to be received, not achieved. The first lie is to create an identity, not receive an identity.
