The Ninety-Five

Please note—in place of our monthly Mission Prayer meeting there is an opportunity to hear a presentation from the national director of Scripture Union, Tim Hastie-Smith who will be speaking on mission to children and young people. It is a free event but we are asked to book—please contact James Simister for details, or to book your seat on the minibus from Huntington to St Andrew's Bishopthorpe.

News of Pat Aldridge

Pat thanks all those who have been praying for her recovery and have sent cards or messages since her fall on 20 March and subsequent stay in N. Tees hospital. She has now been transferred to the Fitzwilliam Rehabilitation Ward at Malton hospital where she is likely to be for some weeks. She is delighted to be nearer home. Please continue to pray for increased mobility and less pain as she exercises.

Growing Our Giving

Thank you to everyone who responded to the information. We have 10 new regular givers: a promising start towards our target of 40 this year. This increases our regular giving by 5% which is encouraging progress towards our 10% target, though we still have quite a large gap to close against our 2017 budget. Please continue to pray about the ongoing financial challenge we face. If you have yet to respond or have any questions please contact Andrew Coombes or Andy Bevington.
