St Crux Fundraiser

Saturday 18th November at St Crux Parish Hall, Pavement, York

Please sign up on the sheets at the back of church if you can help in any way on the day and/or if you can offer to bake items for the cafe or cake stall. Donations of bric-a-brac and books can be brought to the office or passed on to Keith (no clothing or electrical items). Thank you.

Gift Day

It is not too late to bring your Gift Day brown envelopes to church! Please make any cheques payable to 'PCC of Huntington'. If you prefer to donate by BACS, our account details are sort code 08-92-99 and account no. 65449240. For BACS payments please send an email to our Treasurer, Andrew Coombes to confirm the purpose of the transfer (treasurer@huntingtonparish.org.uk).

Shoobox Appeal: Operation Christmas Child

Be a part of changing children's lives all over the world in Jesus' name through the power of a simple gift with Operation Christmas Child. Ideal items to fill a shoobox are: small soft toy, car, ball, finger puppet, doll, yo-yo, musical instrument, stationery, comb, toothbrush, toothpaste, flannel, soap, hat, gloves, hair clips, small packs of sweets. (Please don't include other food items, medicines, sharp or war-related items, fragile items or any liquids.) Donations of money for sending the boxes are also very welcome. Please bring all contributions to the church office by the end of October. For more information, ideas or suggestions of gifts, contact Helen (07779 186916) or Paddy (768307), or take a look at the website: samaritans-purse.org.uk

Points for prayer

Big Issue Vendors

Ken Bradbury writes: Big Issue vendors are people who have lost their homes often due to no fault of their own, and are selling the Big Issue to get started again—they are not begging. The Big Issue costs £2.50 and the vendor keeps £1.25 of that. If you can buy one and give the seller a smile and a 'Hello,' then please do, as it is quite discouraging when people walk past all the time. Thank You.
