St Crux Fundraiser - don't miss this opportunity!

Saturday 18th November at St Crux Parish Hall, Pavement, York

Let's take advantage of this pre-Christmas Saturday in York when people will be shopping for Christmas gifts, decorations, crafts, stocking stuffers and bric-a-brac. If you can donate unused decorations, candles, children's toys or books, or crafted items, please bring them to the office or pass them on to Keith Blanshard (no clothing or electrical items). Please sign up on the sheets at the back of church if you can help in any way on the day and/or if you can offer to make items for the cafe or cake stall. Thank you.

Shoebox Appeal—final call

Be a part of changing children's lives all over the world in Jesus' name through the power of a simple gift with Operation Christmas Child. Ideal items to fill a shoebox are: small soft toy, car, ball, finger puppet, doll, yo-yo, musical instrument, stationery, comb, toothbrush, toothpaste, flannel, soap, hat, gloves, hair clips, small packs of sweets. (Please don't include other food items, medicines, sharp or war-related items, fragile items or any liquids.) Donations of money for sending the boxes are also very welcome. Please bring all contributions to the church office by the end of October. For more information, ideas or suggestions of gifts, contact Helen (07779 186916) or Paddy (768307), or take a look at the website: samaritans-purse.org.uk

Gift Day update

The current total from our Gift Day on 8 October has now reached in excess of £26,000—an astonishing sum, and well in excess of last year's final total. However, it isn't too late to bring your brown Gift Day envelope to church! Please make cheques payable to 'PCC of Huntington'. If you prefer to donate by BACS, our account details are sort code 08-92-99 and account no. 65449240. (For BACS payments, please email treasurer@huntingtonparish.org.uk to confirm the purpose of the transfer.)

Word for Today

The November to January Word for Today is available at the back of each church. The suggested donation towards postage is 50p per copy.
